

Pastor Alex Berg was born on Nov.18.1973, in Kazakhstan, in the former USSR, where he grew up as an atheist. In 1990, his family moved back to Germany, where he was exposed to the Gospel for the first time. It transformed his life and eventually led him to attend Seminary and launch as a missionary throughout his beloved Germany. He and his wife later launched Mosaik Church, which he still pastors to this day. He is passionate about the work of The Foundation United to Awaken the Church through REAL TALK and has witnessed its transformational impact in his own ministry. He and his wife have four wonderful children, Philip 26, Charlotte 23, Joanna 22 and Phoebe 19. He shares that some of his greatest loves in life include people, church, American Football, exploring different cultures and photography.
